- iv. Registration details of Institution/Vendor. The firm should be registered with tax authorities. Copy of TIN/TAN/PAN, Service Tax number should be attached with the tender.
- v. Details of the penalty / fine imposed by any government agency on the Institution/Vendor's firm due to sub-standard or poor quality of printing materials, if any, in the last 5 years.
- vi. Details of any instances of forfeiture of EMD money of the Institution/Vendor's firm by any governmental agency for violation of terms and conditions.

- vii. The Institution/Vendor should have carried out at least three work orders in the past one year, worth minimum of Rs.5 lakh each relating to publishing of government (Centre/State/PSUs/Autonomous body) reports.
 - viii. If one side of a page is colour and other side of page is black & white, it will be treated as one page colour and one page Black & white.
- (b) The selected institution(s) /vendor(s) would be required to perform the following functions:-
- i. To collect the compiled draft for designing, formatting and printing along with one master hardcopy and softcopy compiled in MS Word/PDF.
 - ii. The firm must depute a representative to NCRB within 24 hours of being required by this Bureau for collecting the manuscript, collecting the approved version of the draft and any other matter incidental to the printing of the report(s). Any delay beyond 24 hours will be counted in the 10 days period specified in Para 3 as below.
 - iii. A sample copy of each report can be checked / discussed in the Bureau with prior appointment with authorized officer on any working day between 2PM to 5 PM.
 - iv. A draft of the report with all designs and formatted text/layout, using same colour and material as is to be used for actual report, will have to be submitted to the Bureau or officer, as designated, on behalf of the Bureau for approval before final printing within 5 working days of the handing over of the manuscript.
 - v. The final copies of the report have to be delivered within 5 working days after approval of the draft subject to the condition that total time taken in submission of the draft for approval and the copies of the final report(s), excluding the time taken in submission of draft, should not exceed 10 days (excluding non working day(s)) from the day the manuscript of the report is handed over to the firm. A penalty of Rs. 2000/- will be imposed for each day of delay beyond the specified time limit.
 - vi. The firm must deliver the final copies of the report(s) at a storage place in NCRB. Failure to do so would result in the imposition of a penalty of 15% of the total cost of the printing of the report(s).
 - vii. The firm must execute a non-disclosure agreement with NCRB.

3. Time Frame

The institution(s)/ Vendor(s) will submit printed reports within a period of 10 days (including non-working days).

4. Monitoring/Supervision of the printing work

The institution(s)/consultant(s) should have mechanism for conducting check/ supervision over the quality of printing report(s). Besides, the officers of the Bureau may also visit the premises of Institution(s)/Vendor(s) under physical monitoring (Refer Rule 177 GFR 2005).

5.Evaluation Procedure

The following aspects will be considered while evaluating the bids:-

institution(s)/vendor(s) would be opened and evaluated in terms of the parameters mentioned in para 2(a) and conditions specified in technical bid(Annexure-II). The Quality-cum-CostBased System (CQCCPBS) would be followed by the Bureau. An Evaluation Committee of the Bureau constituted for the purpose will evaluate the technical proposals on each of the technical parameters mentioned in para 2(a). A bidder who has been found defaulter or fined by any office may not be considered for award of printing work. Hence the bid(s) falling under clause 2(a)(v) will be rejected summarily while fulfilling other clauses under para 2(a) are minimum requirement. The institutions/organizations who meet all the requirements mentioned under para 2(a) will qualify technically.

The Technical Committee will also evaluate the track record and performance of previous work done by bidders in order to assess the capacity of the bidders, in respect of firms

- Blacklisted by government office(s) (Central/State/UT/PSU).
- The fine or penalty imposed on bidder by government office(s) (Central/State/UT/PSU).
- Accusation of sub-standard printing by government office(s) (Central/State/UT/PSU).

Under above circumstances, a bidder may not be considered for the award of printing work.

The Bureau shall open the financial bids of only those bidders who have been declared technically qualified by the Evaluation Committee (Please refer Rule 175 GFR 2005)
