Message

I am happy to know that NCRB is publishing the annual edition 'Crime in India-2018' report. Being a principal reference document on crime statistics in the country, various stakeholders including policy makers will be able to get detailed information on various aspects of crime for analysis and for formulation of effective crime reduction and mitigation strategies.

2. I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to States and Union Territories for providing the required information to NCRB in a timely manner. I appreciate the efforts made by NCRB to compile and collate the data on crime statistics for the year 2018.
